

Levantine

Bokja, the award-winning Lebanese furniture and interior decor business, kicked off its A Stitch in Time exhibition with an exclusive cocktail party last month. Co-curated by Calvin Hui, the founder and artistic director of Hong Kong's 3812 Gallery, and Denise Lau, executive director of Colourliving, one of Hong Kong's premiere lifestyle stores, the two were united in a mission to "explore traditions of Levantine textiles in a contemporary furniture setting."

1 Elna Lee, William Lau, Gloria Yip and Arthur Lam • 2 Barry Lam and Ada Ma • 3 Vania Pang, Charles Chan and Mable Lau • 4 Mark Peaker, Denise Lau and Calvin Hui • 5 Andrew Sun and Anita Tsang • 6 Kein Chung and Joey Ho • 7 Calvin Wong, Gina Wong, Seanna Liu, Hailey Song and William Pang • 8 David Chin and Denise Lau • 9 Stephanie Kwan, Ishina Sakhrani and Rebecca Lo • 10 Rebecca Wu, Calvin Chan and Willy Wu • 11 Chi-wing Lo and Lily Kwai • 12 Sujata Govada and Meilina Liu • 13 Simon Leung, Mantuk Li, Joey Ho and Mario Chan

